Kansas Hispanic Education & Development Foundation Announces Three New Board Members

Wichita, KS. August 31, 2017—The Kansas Hispanic Education & Development Foundation announces the appointment of three new members of its Board of Trustees, as well as the full slate of officers and board members.

Joining the Board of Trustees are Shane Batchelder, Richard Muma and Terri Rice. “All three of our newest Board members bring talent, expertise and energy to the table. Year after year I’m astounded at the level of experience we’re able to access from our board,” said Yolanda Camarena, Board President of KHEDF. “We have a very strong leadership foundation in place, and we couldn’t be more pleased with these appointments.

Shane Batchelder has 10 years of experience in marketing and communications. He is the Marketing Communications Representative at Westar Energy. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communications and Film Minor in Business Leadership from Southwestern College and a Master of Science in Management degree from Southwestern College.

Richard Muma has nearly 30 years of experience as a professor/administrator and physician assistant (PA) in internal medicine and infectious diseases. He is the Senior Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and Strategic Enrollment Management position at WSU. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Physician Assistant Studies from the University of Texas-Galveston, a MPH in Community Health from the University of Texas-Houston, and a PhD in higher education administration from the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Terri Rice is a marketing management executive with 25+ years of experience. Currently she is the Senior Marketing Manager at Cox Communications, Inc. She earned a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Oklahoma and a Master of Business Administration from Newman University.

“We are confident that the new board members will add great value to our Board of Directors and that KHEDF will benefit from their insights, judgment and counsel,” Yolanda Camarena.

The slate of board members is listed below.

Yolanda Camarena, President of the Board, Gary Freeman, Vice President/Treasurer of the Board
Irma Luna, Secretary of the Board, Shane Batchelder, Tom Borrego, John Buckley, Angel Crespo, Dennis Clary, Sylvia Orozco-Do, Dominic Gauna, Richard Muma, Terri Rice, and Nathan Sander.
