Nathan Sander joins Kansas Hispanic Education & Development Foundation Board

Wichita, Kan. - The Kansas Hispanic Education & Development Foundation (KHEDF) is pleased to announce they have added Nathan Sander, Vice President / Branch Manager for Bank of The West to its board of directors.

Sander serves on the family support committee and as a budget coach for Wichita Habitat for Humanity. Sander also volunteers for Young Professionals of Wichita, Junior Achievement, and United Way of the Plains.

According to Yolanda Camarena, Board President for KHEDF, "Sander will further strengthen our board's breadth of talent and background, and we are delighted to have such an outstanding individual. I'm confident that Sander is going to make an important and positive impact to the Foundation."

Sander is eager to serve with the organization and claims that, "Education can open many doors and provide opportunities for young adults. I am grateful to be involved with an organization assisting the Hispanic community with attaining their dreams through education."
